Carol Service

Sunday, 15 December

3.30 pm

at St. Michael's Primary School

Marston Road

Traditional carols

Festive food

Children's crafts

Since the first service of Nine Lessons and Carols held in Truro, Cornwall, in 1880, Carol Services have grown in popularity.

The story of Jesus' birth celebrated in the carols goes back much further.

Set in the time of the Roman Empire, it's a story of poverty and riches, of strange events and murderous plots. Most of all it's the story of a Saviour sent into the world by God himself to bring peace and new life.

You are warmly invited to come along on 15th Dec to hear the story through carols and readings.
